Polity of The Episcopal Church

The Rt. Rev. José Antonio McLoughlin
Bishop Of The Episcopal Diocese Of Western North Carolina

This summary is based on Episco-Polity 101 created by the Vital Congregations Committee of the Episcopal Diocese Of Michigan and is used with permission.

Let's look at Polity

3 basic forms of polity in
Christian faith communities:

“episcopal” churches

5

Examples: Roman Catholic, Eastern Orthodox, and many Anglican Churches.

- ▶ Apostolic Succession
- ▶ Authority is vested in bishops, who (alone) make decisions of doctrine.
- ▶ Bishops are the chief ministers, who then ordain other ministers (priests and deacons).

“congregational” churches

6

Examples: United Church of Christ, Baptist churches, “free church”

- ▶ Each congregation can decide its own doctrine and positions.
- ▶ Congregations may join loose associations for mutual benefit, but not to have authority over one another.
- ▶ Congregationalism appeared after the Reformation.
- ▶ Individual community calls clergy without hierarchical approval
- ▶ This is the polity “in the air” in the Southeast!

“presbyterian” churches

7

Example: The Presbyterian Church (USA) and its off-shoots.

- ▶ No bishops, but congregations are organized into regional “presbyteries” and synods.
- ▶ Elected church officials, lay and ordained, make major decisions for congregations.
- ▶ Annual national “General Assembly” makes policy for the whole denomination.

Which is the correct form?

8

Essentially...all

- ▶ The New Testament shows elements of all three forms with lots of experimentation and local adaptation.
- ▶ No modern Church system can be traced exclusively back to the Early Church.

The Episcopal Church: a hybrid polity

Effectively blends “episcopal”, “presbyterial” and “congregational” forms of polity.

- ▶ We have Bishops
- ▶ Certain authority separately given to all orders of ministry.
- ▶ Shared decision making between clergy and lay leaders.
- ▶ Certain decisions can be made at the congregational level independent of bishop or other congregations. (C&C)
- ▶ The primary ministers are the “laity”.

Baptismal Authority

- Equal and mutual authority is given to all through baptism
- The Holy Spirit is active in everyone's life, gives us each unique and incomplete gifts, and unites us in a larger whole (I Corinthians 12; Ephesians 4)
- Every person's gift is important to the Body of Christ
- All baptized persons have a ministry (Baptismal Covenant; TEC Title III, Canon 1)

Authority sits in the pews

The Episcopal Church has characteristics of a representative democracy:

- We exercise our authority through the election of representatives (vestry, delegates to diocesan convention and deputies to General Convention).
- They make decisions on our behalf.
- We also have bishops who exercise authority within the framework of shared leadership
- This approach to leadership is uncommon in the Anglican Communion.

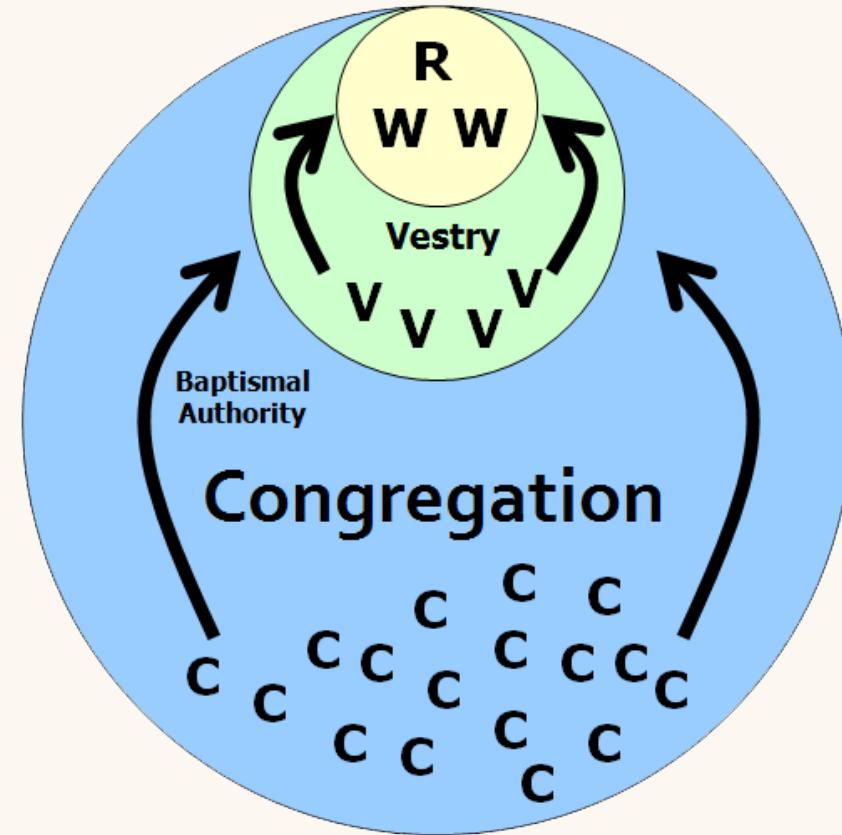

How it works: Polity in the Parish

It begins with the people in the pews, who elect the vestry and elect delegates to diocesan convention at the Annual Parish Meeting.

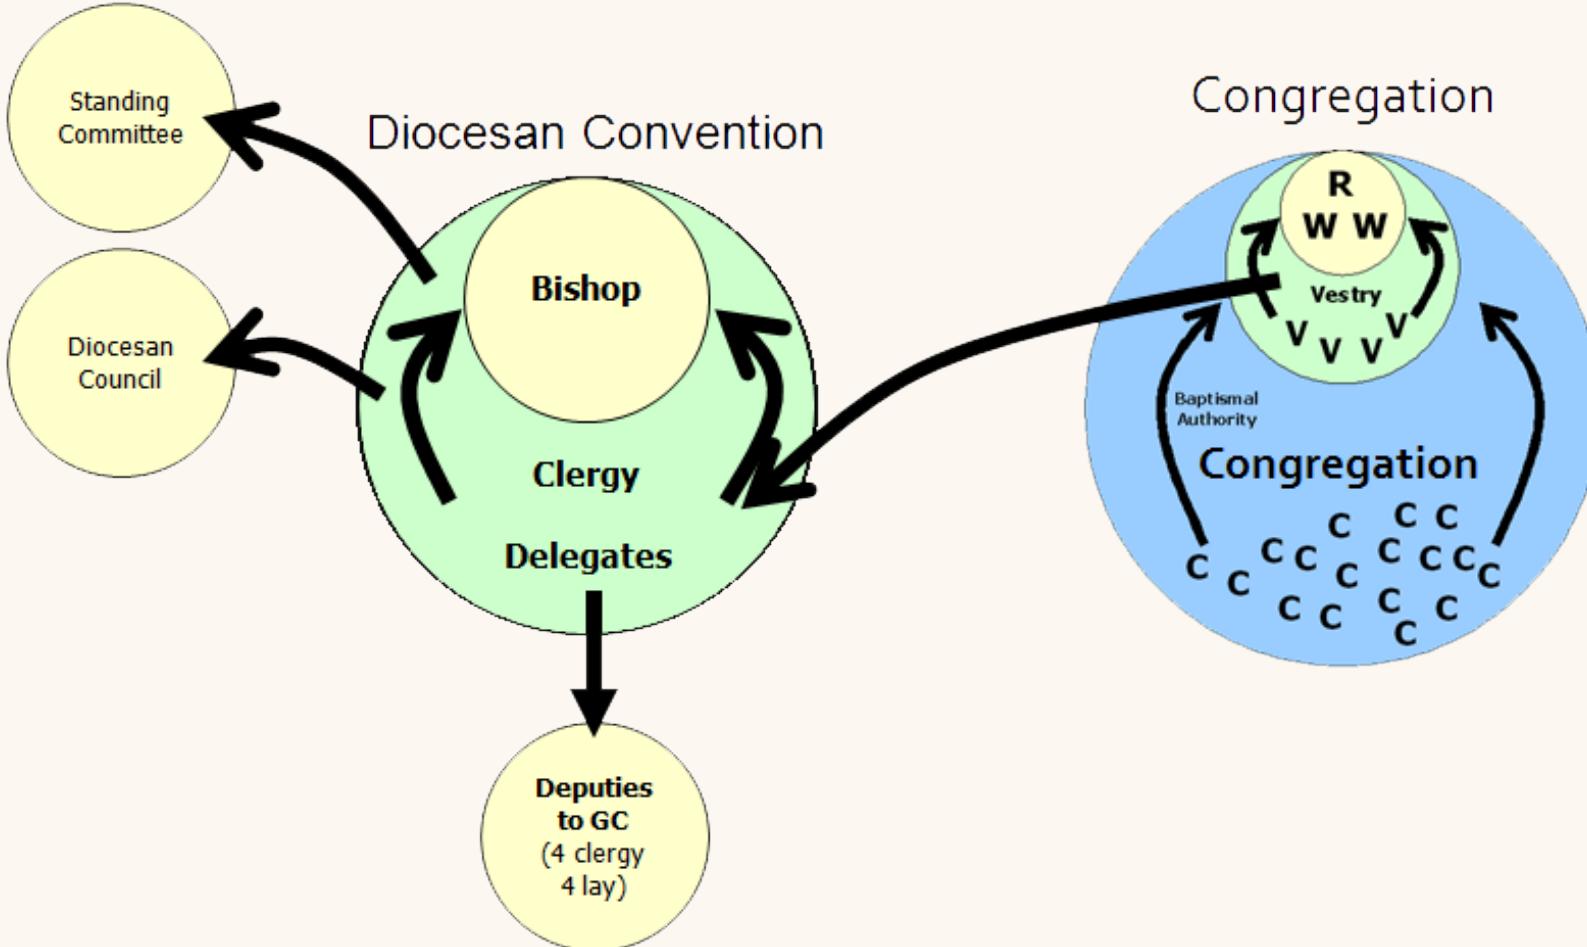

The vestry is responsible for most of the big decisions in the parish, as described in the Constitution and Canons.

The "Flow" of Baptismal Authority: Local Congregation

- Begins with “communicants”
- “Adult communicants in good standing” invest some of their baptismal authority in the Vestry
- Vestry receives that authority as responsibility to make decisions on behalf of the congregation

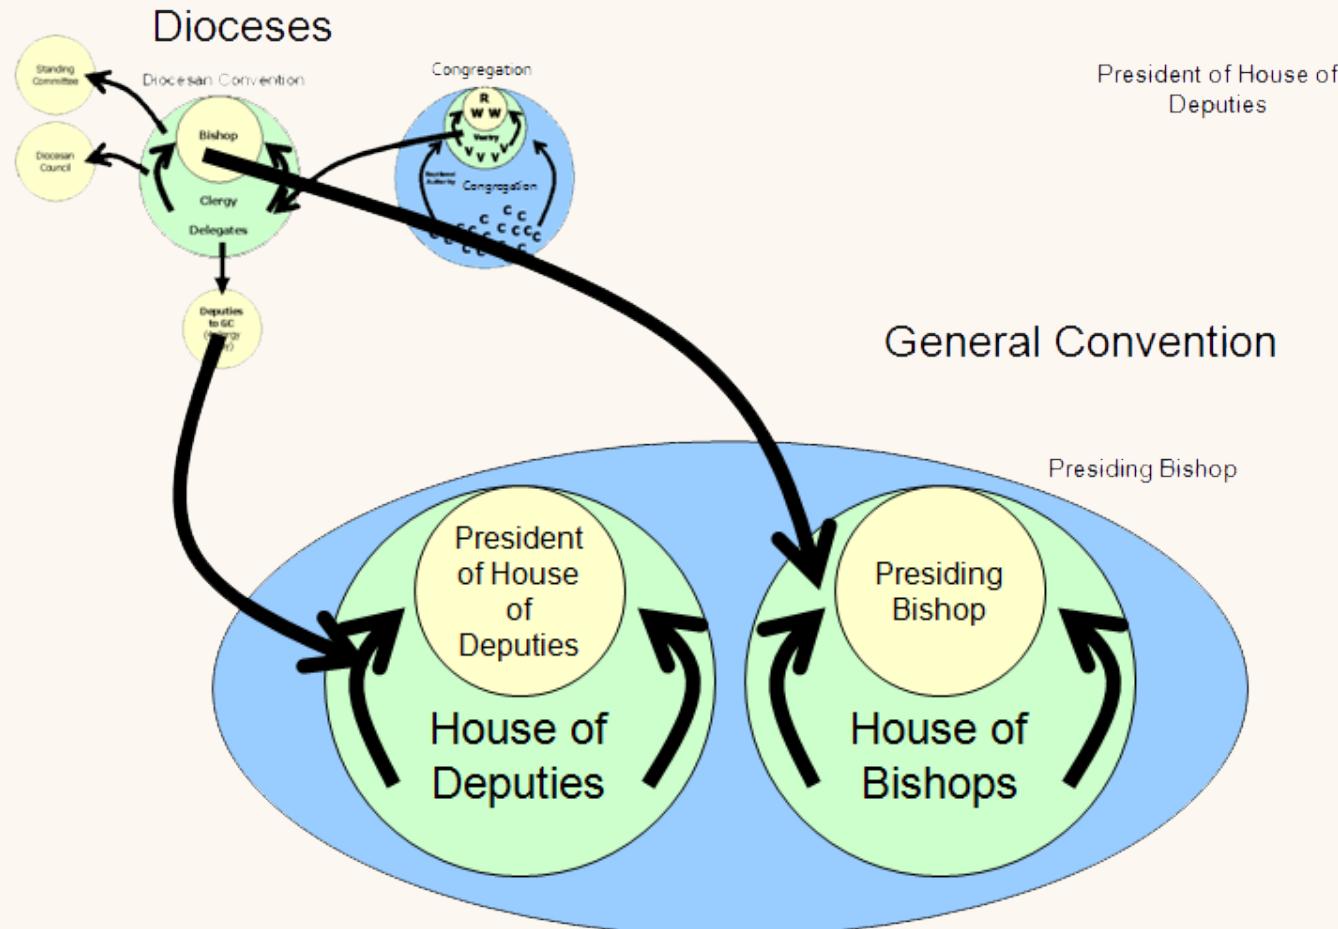

The "Flow" of Baptismal Authority: Diocese

The "Flow" of Baptismal Authority: Diocese

- Congregation also invests some baptismal authority in Diocesan Convention Delegates:
 - Electing a bishop (when required);
 - Passing the diocesan budget;
 - Electing leaders of the diocese (Standing Committee, Executive Council, etc.),
 - Setting policy and canon law for the diocese; and
 - Every three years, electing the Diocese of Western North Carolina deputies to General Convention

The "Flow" of Baptismal Authority: Wider Church

The "Flow" of Baptismal Authority: Wider Church

- Diocesan Bishop(s) and General Convention Deputies:
 - Elect the President of the House of Deputies (from among the deputies)
 - Affirm the election of the Presiding Bishop by the House of Bishops (from among the bishops)
 - Make decisions for The Episcopal Church on behalf of the Diocese that sent them

Shared Authority

- On every level of our Church, authority is shared between lay and ordained:
 - Congregation Level – Annual Meeting, Vestry, Wardens and Clergy share authority
 - Diocesan Level – Bishop and Standing Committee, Diocesan Convention, Executive Council, other Diocesan committees
 - National Level – General Convention (voting in bicameral houses: bishops and deputies), Presiding Bishop, commissions and committees

Role and Responsibility of The Vestry

The powers and responsibilities of the parish vestry are generally set forth in canons 2, 10, 11 and 12 of the canons of The Episcopal Diocese of Western North Carolina and canons I.6.1, I.7.3 and I.14 of the Canons of The Episcopal Church.

Responsibilities

1. Manage the Parish's temporal affairs

The vestry is the agent and legal representative of the parish in all matters concerning its property. It is the duty of the vestry to take charge of and manage the temporal affairs of the parish (which are the secular possessions of the parish, such as its land, building and other assets).

- Elect a Warden
- Elect a Secretary
- Policies, Programs and Budgets

Responsibilities - continued

2. Support the Diocese and The Episcopal Church
3. Assist in Worship
4. Call a priest and manage relations with clergy.
5. Review and approve annual parish reports.

Limitations on the Role of Vestry

The powers and responsibilities of the vestry (and the parish it represents) are not without limits. Such limitations include the following:

1. Ecclesiastical Matters.

The Bishop is the chief pastor of the Diocese, and the priests who serve in the Diocese are the Bishop's assistants and are subordinate to the Bishop's authority as to ecclesiastical matters.

Limitations on the Role of Vestry

2. Beneficial Ownership of Property.

Each parish holds all property, real and personal, in trust for the Diocese and The Episcopal Church. Subject to certain limitations, however, the parish may exercise authority over such property so long as the parish remains a part of, and subject to, The Episcopal Church and its constitution and canons and the Diocese and its constitution and canons.

- Conveyances, Transfers or Encumbrances by a Parish
- Transfers to a Parish

Role of Wardens

The powers and responsibilities of the Wardens of a Parish are generally set forth in canon 10 of the Diocese. They can be summarized as follows:

- 1. Assist in Managing the Parish's Temporal Affairs. In the absence of a priest, the Senior Warden followed by the Junior Warden is to preside at any parish meeting. Moreover, the Wardens are to assist in managing the financial affairs of the Parish, including the collection, safekeeping and disbursement of funds or other gifts to the parish.

- 2. Assist with Worship. It is the duty of the Wardens to provide the elements for the Lord's Supper, to provide for worship and instruction when the parish is without a priest (but as noted above, ecclesiastical matters are subject to the supervision of the Bishop), and to prepare the annual parish report for the parish when the parish is without a priest.

Obligations of the Vestry Members

- Duty of Loyalty
- Duty of Obedience
- Duty of Confidentiality

Leadership Roles of Vestries

What we will cover...

- ▶ Responsibilities
- ▶ Leadership
- ▶ Management

Reflections from both conceptual and practical levels

- ▶ How to work with your clergy
- ▶ Vestry role in stewardship

The Responsibilities of the Vestry

The work of the vestry has two faces, leadership and management. While leadership and management are different, they are complementary and essential. They differ in purpose, focus and tools/ activities.

The Vestry Resource Guide

Leadership involves the following activities:

- Envisioning: Creating vision of the future, along with strategies to make the vision real
- Engaging: Getting people to understand and commit to the vision
- Empowering: Enabling others to make the vision real
- Energizing: Generating enthusiastic, inspired, determined efforts
- Exemplifying: Modeling the vision and the desired values and behaviors

Leading as a vestry member is different than leading in the secular world.

Visioning in the context of the congregation is a process of discernment.

Vestry members prayerfully work together seeking the mind of Christ as reflected in the life of the congregation as opposed to the mind of an individual or group of individuals.

Leadership includes tasks such as:

- ▶ Discerning a vision for the future
- ▶ Articulating and communicating the vision
- ▶ Generating enthusiasm and "buy-in" from the congregation
- ▶ Setting the tone for leadership that encourages other leaders in the congregation to grow and flourish.

Management in the church involves the following activities:

- ▶ Planning: Budgeting, allocating resources and setting objectives
- ▶ Organizing: Establishing structures, policies and procedures
- ▶ Engaging: Gift/talent assessment, training, role-development, coaching, evaluation, recognition, compensation
- ▶ Monitoring: results vs. plan, corrective action, re-planning
- ▶ Preserving: Maintaining and evaluating the physical assets (property and buildings) for the mission of the church

Managers strive to achieve stability, predictability, order and efficiency; these are necessary, worthy and daunting goals. Good managers must deal with conflicts and take some risks to achieve these difficult goals. Both good leaders and good managers are willing to take risk.

Vestry Models Discipleship

- ▶ Cultivate a life of prayer and formation
- ▶ Showing enthusiasm for the church and its ministries
- ▶ Making a generous financial pledge to support the mission of the church
- ▶ Being actively involved in at least one parish ministry
- ▶ Attending worship services, events, adult formation programs, etc.
- ▶ Modeling healthy behavior

What does that look like in “real life”?

Visioning and Planning

- ▶ Clarifying and articulating the congregation's identity and vision
- ▶ Recognizing and reflecting on the changing patterns of culture and society and the impact on the church
- ▶ Setting measurable goals and taking responsibility for them
- ▶ Having a long-term perspective
- ▶ Challenging each other and the congregation to look and think expansively

Managing

- ▶ Being intentional in ministry planning
- ▶ Seeing that ministries are focused towards an overarching goal
- ▶ Insisting on transparency
- ▶ Identifying and equipping talented people for ministry
- ▶ Holding each other to high standards of professionalism
- ▶ Addressing congregational issues in healthy ways

Meetings

- ▶ Check any personal agenda at the door.
- ▶ Avoid acting as a committee of the whole
- ▶ Discuss and debate issues, then speak with one voice

All vestry members should strive to the best of their abilities to:

- ▶ Pray daily for the clergy, leaders, and members of the congregation;
- ▶ Be active in and knowledgeable about the congregation, its programs and governance;
- ▶ Be fair, interact well with people, and strive to earn the respect of the members of the congregation;
- ▶ Have enthusiasm and vitality for this ministry

The work of the vestry is done in partnership with the rector and therefore it is important for the vestry members to understand the rector's role and responsibilities. See Title III. Canon 9, Section 6.

Working with clergy

- ▶ Different language and goals than business
 - ▶ WWJD?
 - ▶ Mission & Ministry
- ▶ Church is a community (relationships) as well as an organization (practices/policies)
 - ▶ Make decisions prayerfully
 - ▶ Engage in best practices, e.g., plans, job descriptions, evaluation, feedback
- ▶ Areas of Oversight & Mutuality

The Vestry's Role in Stewardship

Some current trends in churches ...

- ▶ Operating costs are increasing
- ▶ Less money available for ministry
- ▶ Spending capital to pay current bills
- ▶ Clergy and staff poorly compensated
- ▶ Insurance Costs

In many congregations...

- ▶ Stewardship gets treated as a second thought
- ▶ Money is demonized
- ▶ People don't understand why they give
- ▶ People focus on budgets rather than ministry & mission
- ▶ Disconnect between faith and money

What the vestry can do

- ▶ Actively participate in stewardship activities
- ▶ Treat stewardship as mission and a regular ministry
- ▶ Lead by example with generous giving
- ▶ Create a healthy environment for discussing money
- ▶ Think “ministry and mission”, not “money and budget”!
- ▶ Focus on ministry accomplishments

Thank you!
