

The Paschal Triduum

April 6-9 at St. James

Join us for the height of the Christian year. Though occurring on three separate days—Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter—the Paschal Triduum is one service, in three parts, marking the death of Christ and his resurrection.

April 6 at 7 p.m.: Maundy Thursday—Holy Eucharist with Optional Footwashing and the Stripping of the Altar

April 7 at 10:30: Stations of the Cross

April 7 at noon: Good Friday Solemn Liturgy

April 8 at 7 p.m.: The Great Vigil of Easter with Baptism and Incense

Easter Day
